Crooked Run Creek—588 acres at $1,617,000

This exceptional tract is located in South Crenshaw County on Highway 29 about 15 miles north of Andalusia and 6 miles southwest of Brantley near the Dozier Community. The property has a good mixture of large open fields, some of which have been planted in peanuts in the past, and is surrounded by natural pine and hardwood timber, with other areas in pine plantation 18 – 20 years old, and approximately 26 acres in the CRP program in longleaf pines 3 years old. The property has excellent access by way of two county roads and an old abandoned railroad bed that runs from one end of the tract to the other end.

Crooked Run Creek winds through the property for almost three quarters of a mile providing a good water source and habitat for the abundant wildlife in the area. There are large green fields scattered around the property and deer and turkey signs are plentiful. There are also several coveys of quail frequently seen on the tract.

The most outstanding feature of the whole tract is the gorgeous 20 acre lake located not far from the camphouse. The lake is stocked with Coppernose Bluegill and Shellcracker Bream, and all kinds of ducks and geese frequently fly in and out of the lake. This is truly an outstanding hunting and recreational property with all the natural amenities that any hunting enthusiast could want.
